Appendix I:
Official Seventh-day Adventist Statements on Noncombatancy, War, and Peace

Stefan Höschele

For a projected publication entitled War and Military Service: Adventist Perspectives
Biblical Research Committee, Euro-Africa Division of Seventh-day Adventists, 2018

Version: February 8, 2018

Stefan Höschele

Arranged chronologically.
Statement pages total: ca. 95 pp.
Asterisks (*) refer to the statements with the most significant historical impact.

1864* “Statement of Principles of Seventh-day Adventists.” In General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, Executive Committee. The Views of Seventh-day Adventists
Relative to Bearing Arms, Together with the Opinion of the Governor of Michigan, and a Portion of the Enrollment Law. Battle Creek, MI: Steam Press of the Seventh-day Adventist Publishing Association.

1865 The Views of Seventh-day Adventists Relative to Bearing Arms: As Brought before the Governors of Several States and the Provost Marshal General, with a Portion of the Enrollment Law. Battle Creek, MI: Steam Press of the Seventh-day Adventist Publishing Association.

1865* “Voting / Our Views of War / Our Duty to the Government.” General Conference session minutes, May 17, 1865. General Conference Archives.

1867 “War.” General Conference session minutes, May 14, 1867. General Conference Archives.

1868 General Conference Resolution. General Conference session minutes, May 13, 1868.
General Conference Archives. 1916 Resolution [on Military Service]. Australasian

1917* “A Pronouncement by the Seventh-day Adventists of the United States Concerning Bearing Arms.” April 18, 1917. In Seventh-day Adventists in Time of War, ed. by Francis M. Wilcox, 111–112. Also published as a pamphlet by the Lake Union 1917 “The Bearing of Arms. The Record of Seventh-day Adventists.” General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, War Service Commission.

1921 “Address to President Harding.” General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Review and Herald, December 8, 1921, 2.

1933 “To His Majesty’s Government in Canada [Declaration on Bearing of Arms].” Executive Committee of the Canadian Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, September 1933. In Seventh-day Adventists in Time of War, ed. by Francis M. Wilcox, 331–333.

1940 “Letter to the President [President Roosevelt].” General Conference Committee minutes, October 22, 1940. General Conference Archives.

1941* “Statement in Behalf of the Seventh-day Adventists in the United States in Regard to the Official Teaching of their Denomination with Reference to Participation in War and Training for War.” General Conference Committee minutes, March 24, 1941. General Conference Archives.

1951 “The Relation of Seventh-day Adventists to War.” General Conference Autumn Council minutes, October 26, 1951. General Conference Archives.

103 1980 “Peace Message to All People of Good Will.” In Statements, Guidelines and Other Documents of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, ed. by Rajmund Dabrowski. Hagerstown, MD: Review and Herald, 2005, 80.

115 1990 “Seventh-day Adventist Church Statement on the Crisis in Kosovo.” In Statements, Guidelines and Other Documents of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, ed. by Rajmund Dabrowski [2010], 71–72.

118 1990 “Ban on Sales of Assault Weapons to Civilians.” In Statements, Guidelines and Other Documents of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, ed. by Rajmund Dabrowski [2005], 4–5.

132 2002 “A Seventh-day Adventist Call for Peace.” In Statements, Guidelines and Other Documents of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, ed. by Rajmund Dabrowski [2005], 75–79.

Bibliographical details: